

The Memphis Bulletin says there is a report that the Bank of America, Tenn., has gone up again.

We are indebted to Mr. Collins, of the Adams Express Company, for Memphis papers of Saturday and New Orleans papers of Friday.

FEEL DEAD.—An Irish woman living in Morgan's Row, in Jeffersonville, died yesterday evening. Her death was caused by disipation.

A GOOD REASON FOR OPPOSITION to a monopoly.—H. McCormick threatens to prosecute all journals who have opposed an extension of his monopoly.

THAT A man named Hughes was arrested last evening in the act of stealing clothing from an article in town, and marched to Castle Thomas.

The new church about completed for the use of the Universalist Society in New Albany, is to be dedicated to Divine worship on Sunday, the 24th inst.

DICKNEY.—Reliable information at Washington points that no attack will be made on Fort Sumter or Fort Pickens until Mr. Lincoln has delivered his inaugural address.

Col. Jones, the Government Agent to New Orleans to preserve the revenue cutters, reports that Davis and Stephens were elected with the idea of a reconstruction, and that it is practicable.

Thos. W. Riley, Esq., formerly of our city, now of Bullitt county, is announced in our columns elsewhere as a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, in the third Appellate District, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Judge Wood.

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER.—On Friday, when the stars and stripes are hoisted over the Court-house, the national flag is to be greeted by fully one thousand voices in that grand old anthem, the "Star-Spangled Banner." Let every voice join in the noble music.

SETTLED.—The New Albany Ledger states that Capt. Alexander Hunter, the gentlemanly Superintendent of the Perry Company, has generously and satisfactorily adjusted the loss of Mr. Joel D. Smith, whose horse, wagon, etc., were precipitated from the ferry boat Excelsior into the river a few days ago.

THE DISPATCHES.—On our first page will be found the inaugural of Jeff. Davis, as the President of the Southern Confederacy, the speech of Lincoln at Albany. Reverdy Johnson's amendment as to acquired territories, has been adopted in the Peace Conference. The border State men in Washington do not relish Davis' inaugural.

SHOOTING.—We understand that Ike Bateman, a boss drayman, and a German drayman in the employ of Newcomb & Bro., last evening became involved in a difficulty on Wall street, and that the former fired a pistol at the latter. The bullet, however, only penetrated the former's clothing and skin and was readily fished out by a physician. No arrests were made.

A BULLETIN.—Friend Harry Blackstone, the general messenger for Adams Express, has taken unto himself a bundle of attractions to carry through life—a charming young lady of Bullitt county, Miss Georgy Ellen Borman. We hope that Harry will have a smooth track and no swiches out of place. As he has taken a Bowman we hope he will be the bean man of the Express for many a year.

WE have received from the publishers, Tripp & Cragg, a copy of the beautiful, patriotic song, sung at the Louisville Theater by Miss Ada Webb, and written and composed by the favorite song writer of Louisville, Will S. Rags. The verses are spirited and eloquent, and the music well adapted to the subject. The workmanship of the publishers is very neat and clear, and reflects great credit upon the house from which it came.

THEATRE.—"THE WOMAN IN WHITE." Let every body bear in mind that the great emotional drama of the Woman in White, which has been for several weeks in course of preparation, will be produced this evening for the first time. The cast is an immense one, calling into requisition the accomplished actress, Miss Sallie St. Clair, the eminent comic actor, Mr. Charles Barras, and the entire strength of the company for the realization of this most absorbing of modern dramatic creations. The play was written especially for Miss St. Clair, and abounds in beautiful language, thrilling situations, and startling illuminations, and from what we can glean from our exchanges in relation to its production elsewhere, by Miss St. Clair, the crowds that have flocked to see it night after night are but the legitimate result of placing upon the stage the very finest drama of the day.

Our old friend Oliver H. Stratton, of the Capital drug and prescription store, seems untiring in his efforts to manufacture pro bono publico, such preparations as may at all times be relied upon as safe, simple and effective. His medicated cures for coughs, colds, hoarseness, etc., are truly worthy of the name he has given them, for how any preparation can be so entirely agreeable to the taste and have the remarkable curative powers which they exhibit, is most truly a secret. Though he makes no secret of the mode of preparing them, the recipe being open at all times for the inspection of those who may desire to know their composition.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

His camphorated aniseed and Buckeye pills are daily giving new proofs of their remarkable curative powers, and are fast gaining favor and celebrity. We bespeak for them only that amount of patronage which their real merit deserves.

MUSICAL.—On Friday evening the German Musical Society and the Turners will give their third concert and exhibition at the Music Temple. It is useless to say that the entertainment will be of the most exciting and rehearse character.

THE goods sold at auction at L. Kahn & Co.'s are fresh and seasonable, and worthy the attention of our city and country merchants. This morning they again sell a large lot of staple and fancy goods, a large lot of shirts and other goods suitable for the spring trade. We would advise dealers to attend.

FEMALE BROWBEAT.—Eliza Cartan, by no means a charming person, was arrested yesterday, charged with bigamy, and lodged in jail. Her first husband, a real live person, deposes that he was married to her years ago. She, on the other hand, says he left her, and supposing him dead married one Mr. Bride, and Mr. Curran returning a few days since, and she refusing to leave her last and best beloved, procured her arrest. The affair will be investigated today.

THE HOLMAN.—We have daily adverted to the merits of this troupe of juvenile artists, and regularly recommended them to popular esteem. We can only reiterate that they are the most talented family group that we have ever seen. Little Sallie possesses dramatic and musical talent of the very highest order, and her abilities are natural and not forced. Indeed, this is the peculiar characteristic of the whole family. To-night they will give another of their charming entertainments at Mosart Hall, and we trust they will have a large audience.

THE SOUTHERN CABINET.—Special dispatches to the Cincinnati Enquirer state that the following is Jeff. Davis' Cabinet: Secretary of State, Herschel V. Johnson, of Georgia; Secretary of War, F. O. Hider, of Louisiana; Secretary of Navy, S. R. Mallory, of Florida; Secretary of Interior, W. F. Forchman, of South Carolina; Postoffice Department, J. H. Campbell, of Texas; Attorney General, General John A. Elmore, of Alabama.

Messrs. Sillidell and Tombs will probably be sent as ambassadors to France and England respectively.

WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY.—The arrangements for the appropriate celebration of the natal day of the Father of his country, promise a glorious affair. Any man who cannot honor that day, the stars and stripes, the anniversary of the birth of the hero of the revolution, is not a patriot but a traitor to the sublime drama and the noblest character of centuries. We hope that our Union friends of Jeffersonville and New Albany will come out and join in the demonstration. Their support and countenance of the celebration would be worthy of the occasion.

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS.—The Lafayette Courier of the 16th inst. contains the developments of the murder of Dr. Rowe, in Benton county, three years ago. In the winter of 1888-9 a physician named Rowe, temporarily located in Oxford, Benton county, twenty miles west of Lafayette, and boarded at a hotel in that place kept by Mr. George King. A short time after his arrival there he mysteriously disappeared, under circumstances which led to the belief that he had been murdered by persons living in Oxford, and the body buried in one of the many swamps of the vicinity. Officers have since been diligently searching for the body, but to the chagrin of the suspected parties, but up to Thursday last all their efforts had been vain. On Wednesday the Attica anti-horse thief company held a meeting, and resolved to make a number of arrests on suspicion. Accordingly on Thursday the company, about fifty in number, repaired to Oxford and arrested George King, the hotel keeper with whom Dr. Rowe boarded, and a person named James Rogers King became greatly alarmed at his arrest, and was soon prevailed upon to make a confession, in which he fully implicated himself, Rogers and a man named Haggert, who has since removed from Oxford to Middleport, Illinois.

King states that about two months after Dr. Rowe began boarding with him, he learned that he was possessed of upwards of $2,000 in cash. A scheme was immediately concocted between the parties named to rob the doctor of his money. After several unsuccessful attempts to rob him without committing the crime of murder, they determined upon the latter course. Accordingly Rogers and Haggert were stationed on the road side, in a secluded locality, between Oxford and this city, a short distance from the former place, about dark on the night of the murder. King ordered his carriage brought out, remarking that he had business in this city that night, which demanded his presence here. A half hour after leaving home he returned in great haste, and announced to Dr. Rowe that a person was lying dangerously ill at a house a few miles off, and that he had consented to drive back and request his immediate attendance at the place named. King then apparently resumed his journey to this city, but only drove out to the locality where his accomplices were stationed. After placing his horse and carriage out of the way, the three men awaited the arrival of the doctor, who soon came along, when they stopped him, took him from his horse, and a short distance from the road-side they deliberately shot and buried him. King says he knows the spot where the body was interred at that time, but thinks Haggert and Rogers have since removed it. The villains thus secured the coveted $2,000, which was divided between them.

King was formerly a resident of Lafayette, says the Journal, employed in peddling stoves for Thomas S. Cox, Esq. It is probable the prisoners will be placed in the jail of this county for safe keeping. A deputa-tion of the regulators is en route for Middleport to arrest the man named Haggert. The conviction of these men will doubtless throw light upon another tragedy which occurred about the same time in that evidence to the breaking of the case under double lock and key, and the capture of the two men, who were taken in a similar mysterious manner. Rogers and others are suspected of murdering him also.

WEEK OF THE DARK LION KIMBALL.—The bark Idaho Kimball, Capt. Umm, from this port for Portland, Me., was driven ashore, towed into Bermuda from Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown ship, which carried away his mizzenmast by the board, as well as other spars in the rigging of the vessel, and drove her into the jaws of the weather side of the stern, destroying the wheel and damaging the house badly. On finding the ship to be the bark Idaho Kimball, the crew of the schooner broke into a shout of joy, and the vessel was towed into Five Fathom Hole, where she anchored the previous day in distress. On the 12th ult. she, 38-ton, long, 55 ft. keel, was driven ashore, and was wrecked on the beach, with lights properly exhibited, was run into at 10 p. m. by an unknown

